

Biography - Dr. Albert Palazzo

Dr. Albert Palazzo is the Director of the Australian Army Research Centre in Canberra.

His Ph.D. is from the Ohio State University where he studied with Professors Allan Millet and Williamson Murray. His thesis was published as Seeking Victory on the Western Front: The British Army & Chemical Warfare in World War I.

He has published widely on the history of the Australian Army and the contemporary character of war. His major works include The Australian Army: A History of its Organization, 1901-2001; Moltke to bin Laden: The Relevance of Doctrine in Contemporary Military Environment, The Australian Army in Vietnam, The Future of War Debate in Australian, and Forging Australian Land Power, A Primer.

His current research is on the effect of resource limits and climate change on the future character of war and technological advances and rising superiority of the defence.